

Join Pacific Research Institute for a policy discussion during National School Choice Week 2020

THE STATE OF SCHOOL CHOICE IN CALIFORNIA IN 2020

As California celebrates National School Choice Week, the future of charter schools is uncertain following legislation enacted in 2019. Join Pacific Research Institute Senior Director of Education Studies Lance Izumi as he leads a panel of education reform experts at the State Capitol in discussing the impact of last year's legislative changes, 2020 legislative efforts that could impact school choice, and reform ideas to preserve and expand school choice options for students and parents.
